

wounds received near Fiers on 15th September.

Another day on which the staff suffered heavily was 7th October. Lieut. J. H. Allender (1st Lond., Comp.), Lieut. L. C. Haycraft (Educ.), and Co. Sergt.-Maj. T. C. Pope (Educ.) of the 4th Londons, Lance-Corp. J. F. Ore and Lance-Corp. A. J. Ames (7th Midx., Educ.), and probably D. Daly (7th Lond., Educ.), and E. J. Titcomb (7th Lond., Tram.) were killed near Les Bœufs, Lance-Corp. R. W. Daly (6th R.W. Kents, Parks), C. M. Coleman (9th R. Fus., Tram.) and Corp. C. J. Mitchell (9th R. Fus., Asylums) near Gueudecourt, F. W. Trotman, B.Sc. (Comp.), Corp. R. A. McMillan (Pub. Health) and H. W. Lawrance (Arch.) of the 15th Londons, and F. W. Peterson and S. H. Potter, both of the 11th R.W. Kents and Tramways, at Faucourt l'Abbaye