

The following photograph is of the dedication of the two new treble bells in 1930.

The lady and gentleman on the left are Edward Augustus Sandford and Frances Sandford (née Gates). The treble is dedicated to the memory of Alan Gates Sandford. This picture was kindly provided by Catherine Allcott who is the great great granddaughter of Alan Gates' father.

The lady and gentleman on the right are Mr Ernest and Mrs Jean Knowles who donated are feature in the inscription on the 2nd bell.(These were identified by Janet Horsman, their great granddaughter, to whom thanks are due.)

The two gentlemen in the middle are the Rev'd C.W. Minnie (the Rector) and Frederick Moses Mitchell, who was Master of the Ancient Society of College Youths in 1932. Frederick Albert Mitchell, his son, followed him as Secretary of Milton tower for many years. Best thanks to Michael Mitchell, F A Mitchell's son for this information.

Also pictured is the tenor bell.
